Product Backlog

Afghan Antiques Store Management System

Product Owner: Khadija Khalil | Draft — For Team Review

Goal: Create a simple online store where customers can browse Afghan antiques and order products, while staff manage inventory and orders.

Next Steps:

First, we will review the 20 user stories together and decide which ones are more important. Then, our developers will estimate how much work each story needs, and we will decide which stories to include in each sprint. We will also discuss the requirements for each story before starting the work.
